Seminar on Bourgogne Wines

Jean-Pierre Renard

Jean-Pierre Renard was born and bred in Burgundy, a true son of the soil. A veteran educator of Bourgogne wines for over 20 years, Renard teaches wine appreciation at the Beaune Centre for Continuing Education and the University of Bourgogne. He also teaches at the Ecole des Vins de Bourgogne, The Bourgogne Wines School, run by the BIVB.

Jean-Pierre Renard is also a board member of the Vitagora –Vigne&Vin, wine editor of Bourgogne Magazine and sits on the panel of experts which advises the European Gustatory Science Centre. He also appears regularly on French television as an authority on Bourgogne Wines. Renard has been writing BIVB's tasting notes for all the vintage since 1998, and co-authored one of the first wine cellar books published in France.

Lim Hwee Peng, CSW, FWS

Lim Hwee Peng is a wine lover and perpetual student of wine. Despite being an established and experienced wine journalist and wine judge, Lim continues to pursue his passion for wine learning. After gaining a International Higher Certificate in Wines & Spirits from WSET (London), he furthered his wine education with certifications from CIVB (Bordeaux Wine Marketing Board), as an international Bordeaux Wines Educator; a Certified Specialist in Wines (CSW) from Society of Wines Educators, USA; Certified Napa Valley Educators from Napa Valley Vintners Association (NVVA). Hwee Peng is also the first professional Wine Educator in Singapore and Asia to be certified by BIVB as a Bourgogne Wines Educator. Lately, he has gone to acquire the Certified Spanish Wine Educator, Australian Wine Educator and the French Wine Scholar (FWS) certifications.
